Code Ann § 19-11-801 et seq. and Section 7(D) of the Major Procurement Rules of the Arkansas Lottery Commission (ALC), the ALC requests submittal of qualifications from firms (Respondent) with proven experience in quality assurance testing of online and instant ticket gaming systems.
- B. Background: The Arkansas Lottery Commission is an instrumentality of the State of Arkansas. It plans to employ approximately ninety (90) people statewide and plans to staff a headquarters located in Little Rock, Arkansas and possibly two (2) district offices by the start-up of instant ticket sales around or before October 2009. The ALC is committed to maximizing revenues for specific scholarship education programs in Arkansas by providing entertaining lottery products and quality customer service to retailers and players, while maintaining its integrity and the integrity of its games.
- C. Submittal of Statement for Qualifications: Responses to this RFQ must be submitted to the evaluation facilitator before 3:00 p.m. on Friday, August 14, 2009.
- D. Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute an offer to purchase the services or a commitment on the part of the ALC to award a contract pursuant to this RFQ. The ALC reserves the right to reject any and all submissions submitted in response to this RFQ, in whole or in part, and to award a contract pursuant to this RFQ or cancel this RFQ if it is considered to be in the best interests of the ALC. The ALC further reserves the right to make changes to this RFQ at any time and from time to time by issuance of written addendum/addenda, amendment(s) or clarification(s). Any changes to this RFQ will be posted on the ALC's website.
- E. All data, material and documentation originated and prepared for the ALC pursuant to this RFQ will be available to the public in accordance with the Arkansas Freedom of Information Act, §25-19-101 et seq. However the ALC will make reasonable attempts to maintain the confidentiality of any trade secrets or proprietary information if Respondent properly identifies the particular data or other materials which are trade secrets or proprietary information in writing by page, paragraph and sentence or upon submission to the ALC of the data or other materials to be protected. Respondent also should state the reasons such confidentiality is necessary. However, under no circumstance will the ALC be liable to any firm or to any other person or entity, for any disclosure of any such trade secret or confidential information. The ALC may not consider submissions in which all or a substantial portion of the submission is declared by the Respondent to constitute trade secrets or confidential information.

- F. Any award resulting from this RFQ cannot be assigned in whole or in part without the prior written approval of the ALC.
