Booneville Man Wins $200,000 Playing $10 Instant Game

Nov. 3, 2026
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — A Booneville resident recently stopped at a local retailer for breakfast and walked away with a large lottery prize.

Donald Allcorn won a $200,000 top prize playing Triple Red 777, a $10 instant game. He claimed his prize at the Arkansas Scholarship Lottery Claim Center on Oct. 26.

Donald, an occasional lottery player, was on his way to work when he decided to stop at Casey's General Store #3873, 325 E. Main St. in Booneville, for something to eat.

"I'm just going to grab a couple of scratch-off tickets while I'm here," he thought.

Donald purchased two instant tickets and won $100 on the second. He hesitated to buy another game with his prize, thinking he might not win again so quickly. However, he remembered that his coworker had won a few prizes on Triple Red 777, so he decided to give the instant game a try.

Lucky for Donald, his ticket won a $200,000 top prize.

"I just kept scratching until I saw the '7' symbol, thinking that I won maybe $10 or $20," Donald told lottery officials. "When I saw the prize, all I could think was, 'What in the world?'"

The lucky winner rushed to tell his wife, who was equally shocked.

"I honestly couldn't believe it," she said. "I was just in awe."

Donald and his wife plan to buy a house, take care of their kids and save the rest of their winnings.

Two $200,000 top prizes remain on Triple Red 777.
