Norfolk player wins, wins some more

Million-dollar prize bookended by $500 wins -- and more

Dec. 18, 2017

LITTLE ROCK – Baxter County native Eddie Baker is a man on a winning streak. Last Thursday, the firefighter from Norfolk won $500 on an instant ticket he bought in Calico Rock; then on Saturday, he won another $500 on an instant ticket, again in Calico Rock. But it was his instant ticket win on Friday at White Oak Station in Mountain Home that's really notable. No, not his $50 winning ticket. The one after that – the $20 Arkansas Millions instant ticket that won Eddie one million dollars!

That's the win he'll use to buy his wife Crystal, the K-6 special education teacher, a new car. Their seven children, aged 7 through 23, will also receive some of the prize, he said. Eddie even gave the store clerk at White Oak Station in Mountain Home his $50 win, but millionaires can do that sort of thing – even if, like Eddie, "it doesn't seem real yet."

Then, Eddie won another $30 on an instant ticket he bought in Little Rock while he was claiming his million-dollar prize. Eddie left the scene with another as-yet unscratched ticket in hand, so we may not have heard the last of Eddie Baker of Norfolk yet today – stay tuned!
